Diocese Welcomes New School Principals

Five schools in the Catholic Diocese of Columbus have new principals and one has added an assistant principal for the 2008-09 school year.

The new principals are (as pictured) first row: Roxanne Demeter, St. Rose, New Lexington; Laura Corcoran, Bishop Flaget, Chillicothe; Kate Cavello will become assistant principal at Immaculate Conception, Columbus; Kathleen Norris, Westerville St. Paul; second row: Joel Wichtman, Columbus St. Andrew , F. William Zanders, Zanesville Rosecrans High School; Jeff Grimmatt, Columbus Trinity.

Roxanne Demeter, who earned masters degrees in both School Administration and Counseling from the University of Dayton, has served as teacher or administrator for Groveport and Westerville Schools. A Pastaskala resident, Ms. Demeter will serve at St. Rose School, 119 West Water Street in New Lexington.

Laura Corcoran, who served as interim principal for Bishop Flaget School, 570 Parsons Avenue, Chillicothe, last year, earned a Bachelor of Science from Ohio University, Athens, Ohio. She received a Master in the Art of Teaching from Marygrove College, Detroit. Ms. Corcoran taught at both Orrville and Chillicothe High Schools and served as marketing director for Bishop Flaget.

Katie Cavello is the new assistant principal at Immaculate Conception School, 366 East North Broadway, Columbus. She earned her bachelor's degree from The Ohio State University and master's from the University of Dayton. She also taught at St. Philip the Apostle School and Immaculate Conception, both in Columbus.

Joel Wichtman, new principal for St. Andrew School, 4081 Reed Road, Columbus, earned at bachelor's degree from Bowling Green State University and master's from The Ohio State University. His years of teaching have been spent serving St. Andrew School.

F. William Zanders is the new principal of Bishop Rosecrans High School, 1040 East Main St., Zanesville. Mr. Zanders, a graduate of Shadyside High School in Shadyside, Ohio, earned his bachelor's degree from West Liberty State College, West Liberty, West Virginia; Mr. Zanders also earned both a master's degree in guidance and counseling from West Virginia University and a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Detroit.

Jeff Grimm is the new principal for Trinity School, 1381 Ida Ave., Columbus. Mr. Grimm graduated Dublin Coffman High School and earned a bachelor's degree from The Ohio State University and master's degree from the University of Dayton. Previously, he taught at Bishop Hartley High School in Columbus.

Kathleen Norris earned her Masters in Education from Ohio University in Athens and her Ph.D. from Capella University, an accredited online university program. She has served in varying capacities at a variety of school districts as well as Wheeling Jesuit University, Wheeling, West Virginia. A resident of Senecaville, Mrs. Norris is the new principal of St. Paul Catholic School in Westerville.
