DUBLIN RESIDENT NAMED DIRECTOR OF MINISTRY FORMATION

COLUMBUS – Dublin resident Dr. Sheila Murphy is the new director of the Ministry Formation Office of the Catholic Diocese of Columbus. Dr. Murphy previously served the diocese in the Office of Religious Education and Catechesis.

Born in Chicago to Irish immigrant parents, Dr. Murphy grew up in San Francisco and graduated from Star of the Sea Academy there. She earned a bachelor's degree from Dominican College of San Raphael, San Raphael, Ca.; a master's degree in divinity and sacred theology from Boston College; a master's degree in theology from the Jesuit School of Theology, Berkeley, Ca.; and a doctorate of ministry from Catholic Theological Union, Chicago.

While her experiences as a student, teacher and in ministry have taken her from the east to the west coasts of the United States, she also worked at Our Lady of Guadalupe Spiritual Life Center in Belize. Dr. Murphy is an active member of St. Francis of Assisi Church in Columbus.
