New Principal Named for Rosecrans High School

COLUMBUS – The Catholic Diocese of Columbus Office of Catholic Schools announces the appointment of F. William Zanders as principal of Bishop Rosecrans High School, 1040 East Main Street, Zanesville, beginning with the 2008-09 academic year.

A native of Shadyside, Ohio, Mr. Zanders most recently served as superintendent of St. Clairsville-Richland Schools in Ohio. He graduated Shadyside High School, Shadyside, Ohio, and earned a bachelor's degree from West Liberty State College, West Liberty, West Virginia. Mr. Zanders also earned both a master's degree in guidance and counseling from West Virginia University and a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Detroit.

“Mr. Zanders’ many years of experience as teacher, counselor, principal and superintendent demonstrate his dedication to children and their education,” said Lucia D. McQuaide, diocesan superintendent of Catholic schools. “The Catholic community of Zanesville and Rosecrans High School are blessed to welcome him, and we look forward to working together with him.”

Among awards he has received are the Buckeye Association of School Administrators Exemplary Education Leadership Award and the Ohio School Boards Association Educational Leadership Award. He also serves as a member of the Ohio High School Athletic Association controlling board.
