Annual Deacons' Charity Golf Tournament assists prison ministry

COLUMBUS – This year's Annual Deacon's Charity Golf Tournament, held September 15th at Clover Valley Golf Club in Johnstown, Ohio, raised $3000 for Divine Mercy Prison Ministry, an organization that helps women recently released from prison re-acclimate to society and every day life.

Prior golf outings have raised money for various Catholic charities including St. Vincent DePaul Society, Joint Organization for Inner-city Needs, Holy Family Soup Kitchen, St. Francis Outreach in McArthur, Ohio, and Latino Ministry from St. Joseph parish in Dover, Ohio.
