Posted: June 5, 2017

DePaul Cristo Rey (DPCR) seeks applicants for the position of Principal.

The Principal is the chief academic officer of the school and is responsible for leading the instructional, spiritual and co-curricular programs of the school and all of its day-to-day operations. The Principal provides leadership for faculty, staff and students and ensures the orderly and safe operations of the school in all aspects. The Principal coordinates, plans, oversees and executes the school's educational programs, policies and school accreditation processes. The Principal leads and articulates the formation of the school's rich culture, unique mission and clear academic goals. The Principal reports to the President.

All candidates must have a Master's Degree, preferably in education, educational administration or curriculum and instruction, as well as a minimum of five years' successful teaching experience. Practicing Roman Catholic is a must. Educational leadership experience is highly preferred.

Additionally, candidates must have a passion for and be committed to the mission of DePaul Cristo Rey, the Cristo Rey Network, in the spirit of the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati, of changing urban America one student at a time. DPCR team members are culturally competent, open-minded professionals committed to serving all students.

This position begins immediately upon hire.

Salary commensurate with experience. Benefits included. Please send resume and cover letter to mishawn.styles@depaulcristorey.org. Cover letter must include your educational philosophy and how this philosophy best aligns with the challenges and opportunities the position of principal at DePaul Cristo Rey will entail.
